Your honeymoon is sure to be one of the most memorable vacations of your life, but after orchestrating an entire wedding, trying to choose the perfect honeymoon destination can seem daunting. Don't dismay--we've narrowed down our top five honeymoon recommendations for winter that will provide the perfect setting for you to kick off your life together--in style. Bon voyage!--Katie Goldstein

1. St. Kitts and Nevis

These tiny Eastern Caribbean islands may not be on everyone's radar--but that's a huge part of their appeal. Lauded as two of the world's most romantic retreats, Nevis and St. Kitts are the perfect destinations for couples looking for solitude and spectacular natural beauty. These mountainous islands are covered in lush rain forests and miles of golden beaches, with plenty of opportunities for exploration that go beyond sunbathing and water sports. History buffs can visit the UNESCO world heritage site of Brimstone Hill Fortress on St. Kitts, and outdoor adventurers can hike to the majestic peak of Nevis's volcano.

Where to Stay: Just steps away from Nevis shores, amongst lush gardens and swaying palm trees, the five-star Four Seasons Nevis features three infinity-edge pools, a world-class spa, a scenic golf course, and sweeping views of the island's solitary volcano. Take a complimentary tour each afternoon to check out the island's playful vervet monkeys, or participate in the hotel's "Dive and Dine" program where you'll dive with a local expert and catch your own lobster to be prepared later at a beach barbecue.

2. Thailand

Thailand proposes one of the most seductive vacation spots in the world and makes a superb honeymoon choice. While the country's intoxicating natural beauty may draw you here, it's the Thai people's graciousness and warmth that will make you want to stay. Whether you're looking to unwind on Thailand's southern beaches, enjoy awe-inspiring cultural pursuits in the northern regions, or explore the grand metropolis of Bangkok, everyone will find something to enjoy. Added bonus: Thailand offers a great value for American visitors, to boot.

Where to Stay: Tucked into the province of Chiang Mai, the magical resort of Mandarin Oriental Dhara Devi makes guests feel like royalty from the moment they arrive. The regal resort is comprised of several palace-like structures inspired by the former Lanna Kingdom. Friendly staffers, famous for spoiling guests, ensure that you'll never want to leave--and with an enormous spa, eight restaurants, fitness center, temple house, shopping village, arts and crafts center, cooking school, and library, why would you ever need to?

3. Turks and Caicos

For a true luxury destination in the Caribbean, Turks and Caicos is an excellent choice. Providenciales (or, Provo), is perhaps its most sophisticated island destination, offering some of the best beaches in the world and every modern convenience that honeymooners may desire. In Grace Bay, visitors can explore coral reefs, rich sea life, and crystalline waters for legendary diving, snorkeling, and water sports. Or, in Chalk Sound National Park, couples can enjoy seclusion coupled with beaches touting the clearest water on the island.

Where to Stay: Head to the north shore of Provo to Grace Bay Club, a Mediterranean-style resort situated on prime beachfront property. Guests will enjoy uncrowded beaches and attentive service throughout their stay. Relish the peacefulness of the island at the adults-only pool or 5,000-square-foot fitness center and spa.

4. Australia

In Australia, honeymooners have an astounding selection of things to do, as well as thousands of miles of coastline to discover. If you're making the trip all the way "Down Under," don't miss Aussie-style romance in the vibrant city of Sydney, where you can take a surf lesson on Bondi Beach or experience world-class entertainment at Sydney's famous Opera House. Head next to Cairns to snorkel and scuba dive in the Great Barrier Reef, for some of the best underwater sightseeing in the world. Finally, hit up Uluru (known as Ayers Rock) to take in the visually stunning beauty of the Outback.

Where to Stay: The Park Hyatt, Sydney couples contemporary luxury with an intimate residential feel. Boasting a central location and striking views of Sydney's Harbour Bridge and Opera House, guests can appreciate the hotel's prime waterfront locale with private balconies.

5. Iceland

The picture-perfect natural beauty of Iceland is a sight to behold. As a honeymoon destination, Reykjavik is the perfect home base to explore more of the country like the Blue Lagoon, a geothermal spa, and Pingvellir National Park, a UNESCO Heritage Site where you can see the phenomenal Northern Lights.

Where to Stay: Bunk down at the Hótel Borg, combining Art Deco design with contemporary style right in the center of Reykjavik. All 56 modern rooms feature bathrooms equipped with Philippe Starck-designed furnishings and heated marble floors. Since it's your honeymoon, upgrade to a suite on the top floor where you'll enjoy enhanced amenities like a Bang & Olufsen flat-screen TV and a high-quality Hastens beds.
